Originally from Monahans, Texas, Amy Steen-Humble carries more than 14 years of experience as a registered interior design professional. With each new project, she hunts for inspiration in local influences, while keeping her clients’ needs in mind: selecting aesthetically-pleasing products that are both affordable and durable. As a member of the Joyce DESIGN Group, Steen-Humble has played a key role in the design of such structures as: the DoubleTree by Hilton in Arlington, Texas; the Wyndham Vacation Resort at Majestic Sun in Destin, Florida; the Four Points by Sheraton in Coppell, Texas; the Wyndham Vacation Resort at Lake Marion, in Santee, South Carolina—and now, Hotel 1620 Plymouth Harbor.
